

Cotswold District Council - Gambling Act 2005
Main Amendments in Proposed Statement of Principles

PARA (In draft statement)	AMENDED INFORMATION	REASON
	Part A
9.0 – 9.8	Risk Assessments and Local Area Profiles All information added to the policy document.	This is in response to the Licence Conditions Codes of Practice from the Gambling Commission which is effective from April 2016.
	Other amendments Typographical errors and contact detail updates etc.

CONSULTATION COMMENTS

Consultee details	Comments	Details of how the policy has been amended, if any
Moreton-in-Marsh Town Council	'No high value slot machines should be allowed in any premises within Moreton-in-Marsh'	No amendments - the Gambling Act 2005 sets out what licences can be applied for by different types of premises e.g. betting shops, public houses etc. These have set stakes and prizes which are prescribed by the Gambling Commission which the Local Authority has no control over, but does enforce