Background Information

1. The Council may, under Section 249 of the Local Government Act 1972, confer the title of Honorary Alderman on Councillors who have, in the opinion of the Council, rendered eminent service to it as former Members. The resolution to confer the title of Honorary Alderman has to be passed by not less than two-thirds of the Members voting at a specially-convened Council Meeting.

2. In the past, the Council has adopted a points system to determine eligibility. The current scheme is as follows:-

- each year as an Elected Member of the Cotswold District Council or its predecessors - 1 point;
- each year as Chairman of one of the main Committees - 2 points;
- each year as Chairman of the Council (pre September 2001) - 3 points;
- each year as Chairman of the Council (post September 2001) - 2 points;
- each year as Vice-Chairman of the Council (post June 2003) - 2 points;
- each year as Leader of the Council - 3 points;
- each year as Deputy Leader of the Council - 2 points;
- each year as a Portfolio Holder/Cabinet Member - 2 points.

3. The Council has previously accepted that a former Councillor accruing 15 points or more would be automatically considered for the title.

4. Former Councillor BS (Barry) Dare sadly passed away on 15th July 2016. At the time of his death, former Councillor Dare had accrued 27 points under the current points system - 13 points for 13 years' service as a Member (having been first elected in May 2003); 8 for a combined total of four years' service as Chairman of the Audit Committee; and 6 points for three years' service as a Cabinet Member - and would therefore have been eligible for appointment as an Honorary Alderman.

5. The legislation does not preclude the award of such an award posthumously; and it is suggested that such an award would be fitting given the service rendered to the Council and the community by former Councillor Dare over many years.
