1. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- 1.1 This report sets out proposals for members to consider an application for discretionary rate relief in respect of SLM Community Leisure Trust, which is in excess of £10,000.

2. BACKGROUND

- 2.1 Cotswold District Council has the power to consider granting on an individual basis, Discretionary Rate Relief (DRR) to non-profit making organisations and organisations experiencing financial hardship.
- 2.2 Such decisions have historically been considered through the powers delegated to the Deputy Leader and Cabinet Member responsible for Finance. However, in May 2022 it was agreed that any request for such reliefs in excess of £10,000 should be considered by Cabinet.

3. MAIN POINTS

- 3.1 The Council has received an application from its previous leisure operator, SLM Community Leisure Trust. The application is in respect of Cirencester Leisure Centre.

3.2 SLM Community Leisure Trust is a not-for-profit charitable leisure trust who provided the districts local communities with accessible quality health and wellbeing services prior to the current contract being awarded.

3.3 Discretionary rate relief is recommended for the period 1 April 2023 to 31 July 2023. The total charge for this period was £56,320 with 80% mandatory relief of £45,056 having been awarded leaving a balance of £11,264.
