I am one of the founders and one of seven directors of Thames Head Energy (www.thamesheadenergy.org, company number 14520406), which is a community energy organisation - a not for profit social enterprise. Currently setup as a Ltd Company and will be converted to a Community Benefits Society (CBS) once we start raising significant money to build a community solar farm. I take no money from this and the only current assets are the remaining money from the Crowdfund, which stands at £15,000.
